From INTERFAITH REFUGEE MINISTRY

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

Bishop Daniel has designated June 13 as Refugee Sunday in conjunction with World Refugee Day, June 20. This is a day chosen by the United Nations to honor the courage and resilience of the world's refugees.

For over 16 years, you have opened your homes and your hearts to these lost and bewildered strangers and have made them welcome in their new country. You have given them new hope and new faith in the innate goodness of humanity. We are immensely grateful for all you do.

Last year Interfaith Refugee Ministry served 180 new arrivals as well as many other refugees who needed help with employment, citizenship and language.

This year we are expecting the same number in New Bern as well as about 40 in our new sub-office in Wilmington.

Once again, we ask for your prayers and your gifts. Thank you and God bless you.

Susan Husson
Diocesan Refugee Coordinator

The loose plate offering and designated checks for today, June 13, will be given to the Interfaith Refugee Ministry.
