

PENTECOST SUNDAY, MAY 23, was a perfect day for a picnic although a bit humid; however, much preferred to pouring rain or 100 degrees plus! Ron Sortino and his efficient chefs did a marvelous job cooking the chicken which was quite yummy – if you weren't there, you missed out. Thanks, Ron! Also, thanks to all for their delicious contributions to share.

THANK'S TO EVERYONE who pitched in helping with last-minute preparations, i.e., placing orange cones in the driveway, overseeing the large trashcans, moving picnic tables, covering tables, ice in the coolers, filling cups with ice and setting out refrigerated food at the last minute. I was extremely grateful for the help - I won't attempt to list names because I'm sure I'd overlook a name.

In addition, I'm particularly thankful to all who stayed to help clean up! Going to sleep Saturday night, it occurred to me that I had not asked anyone. I was rather panic-stricken but just put it in God's hands. I should've had more faith because there were many who unselfishly offered their help - making it an overwhelmingly happy end to a lovely day!
